I had a lot of fun at the NWA National! The show was held in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, from September 28th thru October 3rd. At the National, I showed my two horses, Jazz Show (Jazz), and He's Bummed Out (Hobo). I was fortunate enough to ribbon in all but one class and even won a reserve National Championship. I competed in all Trail Pleasure divisions against the best riders in the country. I rode my horses almost every day during the summer in preparation for this show. I was asked to be the sole presenter of the American flag for the opening ceremonies Wednesday evening. The National has been touted as the largest Flatshod Tennessee Walking Horse Show in the world! There were 1,741 entries and 327 horses. The National ends a year-long quest for points. This year at the awards ceremony in Nashville, Tennessee, I will be receiving six highpoint trophies (1 championship and 5 reserves). I would like to thank PPWHANC for helping sponsor my trip to this show.

*Thanks!
